DIVES

On North Howard

Must Go, Is Mayor Young's Ultimatum.

Heavy Sentence Imposed on Ella Roehr.

Girls Must All Leave North Howard Street.

Mrs. Roehr Must Cease to Conduct House of Ill Fame.

Ella Roehr's North Howard st. dive must go. She has the alternative of abolishing it or paying a fine of $50 and costs and serving a 30-day sentence in the workhouse. The other houses of ill-fame on North Howard st. must also go, declares Mayor Young. Cases against Mrs. Anna Enhart and her girls were not tried Saturday morning, but it is likely that the defendants will fare no better than the others.

Mrs. Roehr, Gladys Tracy, Bess Murphy Black and Lida Coulter were arraigned in Mayor's court Saturday morning. Mrs. Roehr wore a black satin dress and a picture hat of the same color, also a remarkable defendant. When Mayor Young pronounced sentence on the woman, some of the girls laughed heartily. But Mrs. Roehr didn't laugh. Her face turned white with rage and she wanted to talk.

"May I say a word, your Honor," she asked.

"No," replied the court.

Mrs. Roehr then growled a few words to the girls, and prepared to display her wrath.

"If you make any demonstration here," said Mayor Young, "I'll have you locked up for contempt."

This remark quieted the angry woman, and sentence was pronounced on the girls. Each was fined $20 and costs.

All sentences imposed, including Mrs. Roehr's, will be suspended upon the following conditions: That the girls leave the North Howard street dives within a week, and that Mrs. Roehr cease to conduct a house of ill repute on North Howard st. Costs in each case must, however, be borne by the defendants.

Mayor Young's ultimatum that North Howard st. dives must be abolished is principally for the reason that the houses have given the street a bad reputation, and had a tendency to place a barrier against respectable citizenship in their locality; also that inasmuch as the North Hill district is becoming peopled by a respected class of citizens, and that children must be discouraged from frequenting the dives.

Mayor Young has no patience with the keepers of these institutions. He remarked that while it has been an impossibility to permanently abolish such places, there was no necessity for their being conducted in the manner that the North Howard st. resorts have been run. It was stated that girls are permitted to attend bar, which practice is contrary to the law, and will be stopped.

George H. Adams, for malicious destruction of property, breaking a window, was fined $2 and costs and sentenced 30 days to the workhouse. Time suspended, pending good behavior.

George H. Fisher, intoxication, $2 and costs.

Jacob Klein, Frank Miller and John Long, vagrants, dismissed.

GOLD DUST

Care of Lamps

Many housekeepers think there is nothing to learn about the care of lamps, but if the little details here mentioned are adhered to there will be a great difference in the light. First, a lamp must be cleaned and filled every morning; the burners should be cleaned once a week, and the best way is to boil them in water to which has been added. Put a teaspoonful into a quart of water and boil ten minutes. The flues should be put into a pan of cold water and heated slowly until they boil, then take off and allow to cool gradually; this toughens the glass.

Gold Dust Washing Powder

TRYING

To Get Line On Simms.

Olson's Friends Spotted by the Lookout.

Hard Not Equal to the Occasion.

Rampanelli Is Champion of Summit County.

New Members of N. E. A. C.—Local Sporting News.

Art Simms will meet Ole Olson, the "Terrible Swede," at Chicago tonight. Everybody here expects Simms to win. The following letter from Simms was received today by the sporting editor of the Democrat.

"I am in the best shape for my go with Ole Olson. We will weigh in at 3 o'clock. The articles call for 130. I am already down to weight. I feel good and think I can win. I have trained with White and Mysterious Kerwin. We trained in private so that Olson would not get a line on me. Two or three of his friends came out to spy but Ed Reidy was on the lookout for them and they did not get in. Billy Kennedy of Cleveland was out to see me yesterday but as he was not known he did not get in. Olson beat Kennedy and fought a draw with London Campbell of Pittsburg. They say he has a bad right hand and is very clever. Tommy White and Ed Reidy will be in my corner Saturday night. They think I will win, but I am not so confident."

BROAD DEFEATED.

Kid Broad met his superior in Dave Sullivan last night. They went 25 rounds in the arena of the Broadway Athletic club, New York. Broad had the better of the contest during the early rounds. Sullivan came back strong at the finish and all but put Broad out. The Kid was a favorite in the betting. The decision was given Sullivan.

NOT A RINGER.

The note that Harry Omer, 2:12 $\frac{1}{2}$, had been out ringing last fall was taken from a report that was general in Cleveland, and from statements made by persons who said they saw the gray gelding. It was an error, however, Harry Omer is owned by Ed A. Freer, of Detroit, who is not in the ringing business. He says he bought Harry Omer at the Detroit meeting, and after winning second money at Grand Rapids and first at Jackson, the gelding started at Springfield and was injured. He has since been at Mr. Freer's stable. Harry Omer is in good form again, and this year will be started in the Highland Park matinees.—American Sportsman.

SHARKEY'S WEALTH.

Tom Sharkey to a party of friends Thursday at his training quarters in his new purchase at Sheephead Bay made a declaration that will surprise many. This husky fellow, who has followed the fighting game for a living for but a few years, is worth close to $85,000. Three years has he been in the game, and ever since his fight with Fitzsimmons, where he won on a foul, and which fight gained him his reputation, he has participated in events none of which netted him less than $15,000, and in many the amounts exceeded $5,000. While Sharkey by many might be considered close-fisted, yet he nevertheless has a good heart and home and the old folks are not forgotten in his financial success. Besides the amount which he has in shape to be called on in cash or bills at any time, and which includes the house he purchased at Sheephead Bay for $10,000, the sailor pug has presented over $10,000 to the old folks. At present between times when he is working keeping himself in condition for several fights he has on hand, Sharkey does a little house cleaning, as it were, and is rapidly fitting up the place and intends, he said today, to make it a veritable palace. Then he intends bringing his folks over from Ireland for good to make it their home. Speaking of his coming match with Fitzsimmons, he explained how he hoped to defeat Fitz. Sharkey says:

"I am shorter, more compactly built than he is, closer knit and much more heavily muscled. It's stronger, more rugged and certainly can take more punishment. "I will go in and beat my man without thinking of the cost to myself. "In this battle with Fitzsimmons he may resort to long-range fighting, and try to jab me with his left. That is just where I live. I can get by his long arms, even if I have to take a punch to do it, and then at close quarters I will get a wallop over on his jaw. If I land all right it will be all over with Fitzsimmons. I will rush him, and he is too frail to withstand it. In the rush his long arms will go over my head or around my neck, and then I will rig right and left to his body. He can't stand any of the solid punches I can send into him in this way, and when in a rally I find I have him a bit weaker winded I can finish him with a jab on the jaw."

Eugene J. Hall, the poet and publisher, says that one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice when hoarseness threatened to prevent his lecture at Central Music Hall, Chicago. Nothing else as good. J. M. Laffer, J. Lamparter & Co., A. Warner.

A very pleasant entertainment was enjoyed at the West Congregational church last evening. After the entertainment a maple sugar social was held.

Too many people lose valuable time in experimenting with cough and cold cures. They should take Foley's Honey and Tar before it is too late. J. M. Laffer, J. Lamparter & Co., A. Warner.

Change of Life.

Concordia, Kans., Feb. 28, 1899.

I think it my duty to write you about myself. I am 44 years old, and was very sick last summer from the "Change of Life." Two of the best doctors in Grand Island, Neb., after treating me, gave me up to die. As a last resort I finally tried Wine of Cardui. I am happy to say it helped me from the first dose. After using it awhile, I was in better health than for many years. Another spell has lately come on me, and I sent down town last night for a bottle of Wine of Cardui again. After taking it a few hours I am very much better to-day. It is a pleasure to me to tell others about this wonderful medicine.

Wine of Cardui

This functional change which comes to a woman makes the period between 40 and 50 one of the most critical in her life. If the "Change of Life" is passed safely, she may expect to live to a happy old age. When proper treatment is not secured at this time few women are ever really well again. They quickly become nervous, "fidgety," unlovely old creatures—no comfort to themselves or their families. There is nothing like Wine of Cardui to help women over this dangerous period. Those who take it when the first menstrual irregularity gives warning of the approaching change have a peaceful long life as a reward. They will grow old gracefully and enjoy life to the end. If you are near the time when you can expect the "Change of Life," fortify yourself by getting a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui at your nearest drug store to-day. It relieves every sort of "female trouble."
